

SIIRT UNIVERSITY
VOCATIONAL COLLEGE OF ERUH
Department of Social Works and Consulting
Social Works Programme Lesson Content

Lesson Name: Foreign Language/ English I
Lesson Content: To be (present), nouns and pronouns, articles and numbers, prepositions, questions words, adjectives and adverbs, simple present tense, present continuous tense, to be (past).
Lesson Name: Turkish Language I
Lesson Content: The importance of language in the life of individuals and nation, definition language knowledge, what are the words and sentences, importance in the communication of word and sentences, occurrences of words, where and how it should be used, How to be successful in written expression, types and the principles of verbal expression.
Lesson Name: Atatürk Principles And History Of Turkish Revolution I
Lesson Content: The objectives of teaching Atatürk's Principles and History of Turkish Revolution, revolution and the concepts of revolution, the fall of the Ottoman Empire and the Turkish laying Look at the reasons, the geopolitical situation of the Ottoman Empire, Ottoman Empire, failure of the reform movements at Ottoman Empire, XIX. at the end of the XX. century intellectual movements in Ottoman Empire, fragmentation of Ottoman Empire, first world war, treaty of Mondros, against the occupation of the country and Reaction Mustafa Kemal Pasha, Mustafa Kemal pasha's arrival in Samsun, The First Step for the National Struggle: Organization Through Congress, and the National Pact Kuva-yi National Assembly -i Deputies Opening Opening of Grand National Assembly of Turkey, Press Releases National Struggle, the Parliament of the Independence War Considered, National Fronts.
Lesson Name: Introduction To Law
Lesson Content: Basic concepts of law, the meaning and importance: the rules governing social life, sources of law, judicial branches and the contents of the application of the law, and the courts interpret. The meaning and importance of law in terms of social work.
Lesson Name: Introduction To Psychology
Lesson Content: The development, the basic concepts of the subject and purpose of psychology. Psychological development, behavior, perception, emotion and motivation. Learning the principles and theories of personality. Social psychology. The importance of psychology in social work.
Lesson Name: Human Behaviour And Social Environment
Lesson Content: Biological, psychological and social development of Infants, children, adolescents, and young adults ; development impact of one another interaction their and family, group, organization, community and society as well as social systems. This effect is institutional, developmental, relational and functional dimensions and the relationship between the dynamics of behavior. Interpersonal differences and these differences influence growth and development.

Lesson Name: Introduction To Social Work

Lesson Content: Definition of social work, the basic concepts and components. Social service philosophy, values, ethics, approaches and processes. The historical development of professional social work in the world and in Turkey. practice areas and functional capability of professional social work, role and functions of the social worker's professional , and occupational identity.

Lesson Name: Introduction To Sociology

Lesson Content: Basic principles, concepts and theories of Sociology. Social structure and properties. Social stratification, social relations, and social change. Relationship between social work and sociology.

Lesson Name: Relations With Public And Communication

Lesson Content: The importance of communicating effectively about social groups and methods of examining the general approaches; birth and development of the relations with public, the relations with public at the United States and Europe, public relationship with state-of-the Ottoman society, propaganda and relations with public, facilities represented of public; social aspects of advertising and the promotion, culture and public relations.

Lesson Name: History Of Social Work

Lesson Content: Analysis of the concept of social welfare. Social services in the human services the purpose and function. The formation and development of modern social services. The historical development of social services in the world and in Turkey. The current evaluation of social services.

Lesson Name: Foreign Language II/ English

Lesson Content: Simple past tense, simple future tense, present perfect tense, revision of tenses, comparatives and superlatives, modals, conjunctions, sentence structure, general revision

Lesson Name: Turkish Language II

Lesson Content: Dictation (dictation), punctuation, stages of expression, composition, expression types, types of speech and speech.

Lesson Name: Ataturk's Principles And History Of Turkish Revolution II

Lesson Content: The political events of 1920, the National Struggle Until the Battle of Sakarya, Sakarya War and The Great Raid, the Turkish revolution from Mudanya to Lausanne , Ataturk Era in Turkish Foreign Policy, Atatürk's Principles.

Lesson Name: Report Writing And Presentation Skill
Lesson Content: Literature, the importance of scientific research in the fields of social work and social sciences, the stages of scientific research, report writing and presentation skills and knowledge.
Lesson Name: Theories Of Social Work
Lesson Content: Theories associated with classic social work intended for human system and change. The principles of use in professional applications of theories associated with social work., the use of theories, principles of social service. Psychodynamic, systems and ecological, social psychology, and communication, humanism, community development, radical social work, empowerment and advocacy approaches in terms of the direction of the importance of social work theories and these theories. General evaluation of the classical theories of social work. In today's methods and theories of social works to be addressed, theories associated with contemporary theories of social Works intended change and human systems., Professional applications at the use of theories of intend to social work. Psychodynamic, systems and ecological, social psychology, and communication, humanism, community development, radical social work, empowerment and advocacy approaches in terms of the direction of the importance of social work theories and these theories. General evaluation of contemporary theories of social works.
Lesson Name: Social Work Interventions
Lesson Content: Analysis of the fundamental issues of generalist social work intervention. Eclectic knowledge base of social work, values, and skills. micro, mezzo and macro-response systems meaning, scope and implementation in Generalist social work practice, micro-level of individuals and families with social works, the concept of relationship, communication and interview, Mezzo-level social work in small groups, small groups and group dynamics, group of social workers working in skills; macro-level, community-based organizations and social service, social services in the process of macro-micro, mezzo and macro abilities. Generalist social work practice and the importance of record keeping. Analysis of the fundamental issues of generalist social work intervention. Eclectic knowledge base of social work, values, and skills. Generalist social work practice micro, mezzo and macro-response systems meaning, scope and implementation of the micro-level of individuals and families, social services, the concept of relationship, communication and interview, Mezzo-level social work in small groups, small groups and group dynamics, group of social workers working in skills; macro-level, community-based organizations and social service, social services in the process of macro-micro, mezzo and macro abilities. The importance and record keeping in generalist social work practice.
Lesson Name: Social Structure Of Turkey
Lesson Content: History and analysis of the cultural and social structure of Turkish society. Growth characteristics of the social structure of Turkey. Rural, urban and slum communities. Traditions and customs, social norms and values. The history of the country's economy. Institutional Basis of Turkey's economic life. Social and economic factors that affect living standards.

Lesson Name: Legislation Of Social Work
Lessons Content: National and international legal sources of Social welfare, national and international legal sources. National and international regulations concerning the review of the application in both social welfare services and social Works.
Lesson Name: Interview And Techniques Of Social Work
Lesson Content: Interview as professional communication technique. Cultural differences between the interviewer and the interviewee in interview. Interview duration, purposes and implementation in the different areas. During the meeting, the importance of interaction and mutual relations. Psycho-social examination, evaluation of the interview and reports. Examples of the interview. Individual, family and group interviews.
Lesson Name: Sociology Of Family
Lesson Content: Family resource, task, structure, development throughout history, rural and urban family, family types review. Endogamy, exogamy, polygamy, monogamy. Families in the various religions and communities. The role and status of individuals who constitute the family. Political, religious, economic, social and cultural structure of society in which family .The role of the family in the socialization of children. Family problems associated with modernization.
Lesson Name: Comparative Social Security Systems
Lesson Content: The historical development of the concept of social security and social security. Methods of social security: Social security and social assistance. Comparative analysis of the social security systems in the world and in Turkey. Social services in relation to social security.
Lesson Name: Cultural Structure and Social Work
Lesson Content: Definitions of culture and cultural features of the building. The relationship between social and cultural structure. Understanding of cultural differences and social works, and the planning and implementation of the application taking into account cultural differences. Social work staff training accordingly.
Lesson Name: Structure and Management of Social Works
Lesson Content: Key features of forms of organization and social work organizations. Management concept and the basic principles of social work administration. The organization and management theories. The application of modern management concepts and social work management. Elements of organization development and change strategies. Social worker as an administrator.
Lesson Name: Social Problems and Social Works I

Lesson Content: Childhood and youth, the general assessment processes. Problems of childhood and youth, childhood, and youth-oriented services. Children and young people with the basic principles of social work practice. And place of the elderly in the community attitudes towards the aged. Aging and healthy living; aging theories of social-psychological problems of the aged, requirements and expectations. Service models for older people and social work applications. Disability and care-related concepts needy, disability care muhtaçlılığın classification of the problems faced by people with disabilities and the care of the needy, disabled and care for the needy and contemporary social policies, work models, principles of intervention in social works for the disabled and those who need care.

Lesson Name: Crime Sociology and Social Work

Lesson Content: Children's Rights" and "Human Rights Act" turned to crime in the context of child rights and needs of young people and adults. Macro, mezzo and micro level social systems in relation to the causes of criminality. Wholistic (generalist) in the children's approach to social works, women's and children's delinquency intervention. Characteristics of children and the criminal justice system and the welfare, education, health and social security systems, relationships. Children, youth, women, and adult offenders, preventive and rehabilitative models of social works.

Lesson Name: Local Government and Social Work

Lesson Content: Types and functions of local governments, the role and responsibilities of local governments in the development of social welfare, social works responsibilities of local governments in Turkey, the role and function of social workers in local government, and social works case studies on local issues at the local and intervention.

Lesson Name: Social Work With Family and Children

Lesson Content: Changing society, family, family policies, programs and projects. From families with problems of domestic violence, spousal and child abuse, divorce and separation, leaving home, family, loss, holistic interventions, treatment and rehabilitation.

Lesson Name: Women's Studies and Social Work

Lesson Content: Studies in the field of gender and women's studies, and in particular the concept of gender issues and women's social position and diversity of information produced in the field of women's studies, women's empowerment and to ensure equality between women and men contribute to the transformation of public awareness and the mindset of the social gender roles and a critical perspective in the field of gender equality and social change in the process of the creation of the position of women, women's employment and women's issues to be addressed within the paradigm of social works.

Lesson Name: Updated Problems and Social Work

Lesson Content: Determination of updated problems within the framework of the theories and practices of social work and updated problems associated with the social structure and social works, which is currently taking place in the evaluation of social problems from the perspective of social works, social work practices criticized in the context of social institutions and social problems.

Lesson Name: Social Policy's Studies

Lesson Content: Social policy and social welfare policy: the historical and conceptual issues of social policy and social welfare policy input, the importance of social policy, social service application, the role of social policies by social workers, the function of the European Union and the current key areas of social policy development, policy and programs.

Lesson Name: Social Work Research in Turkey

Lesson Content: Turkey made some of the social services in selected areas of research evaluation. In addition, this research suitable for the purpose of measurement and measuring tools, quantitative and qualitative research design, data collection tools and techniques, data processing and analysis stages of. This research contributions to the development of social works in our country.

Lesson Name: Migration and Urbanization Problems

Lesson Content: The development of cities in the world and in Turkey, urbanization and migration relationship. Urbanization and slum problems. The process of urbanization in Turkey, economic and social aspects. Migration, urbanization and social works in the process.

Lesson Name: Social Development and Social Work

Lesson Content: Social development, social development and change concepts. Regional, rural and environmental development strategies. Community development and the basic principles of the organization of society. Community work in urban and rural environments. Development, social development, and the role and function of social work.

Lesson Name: Social Problems and Social Work II

Lesson Content: The problem of poverty and its causes in the world and in Turkey. Population groups affected by the problem of poverty. The importance of the fight against poverty and social assistance and social services. Interventions for people with poor social services. Role in the social services and skills in business environments. The use of social skills in human resource management. The role of social workers in the development of occupational health and safety. Unemployment across the individual adaptation of social processes. Job security and business people-centered policy-making. The role and function of social workers in trade unions.

Lesson Name: Social Gender and Social Works

Lesson Content: This course is based on gender, social structure and the widespread and deep-rooted problems faced by women in the understanding and resolution is intended to assist the development of a conceptual point of view. For this part of the course will focus on theoretical approaches developed in this regard, these approaches as a social worker, social services, combined with approaches to these problems, the debate will focus on the development of gender-sensitive approach. Finally, the main problem areas in Turkey within the framework of information obtained from these theoretical approaches will be evaluated.

Lesson Name: Social Work's Ethics

Lesson Content: Every profession has ethics as a social work profession. The extent of social ethics, human rights and freedoms in accordance with the laws in force and the fulfillment of traditional morality issues will be discussed.

Lesson Name: Medical Social Work

Lesson Content: Medical social work, history and legal framework. Patients and patients' rights, the problems faced by patients, diseases, psycho-social dimension. Hospital and medical social work practices to community settings. Social work intervention for patients and their families.

Lesson Name: Criminology and Social Work

Lesson Content: Convention on Rights of the Child "and the" Declaration of Human Rights "in the context of children turning to crime, the rights and needs of young people and adults. Macro, mezzo and micro level social systems in relation to the causes of criminality. Wholistic (generalist) in the children's approach to social works, women's and children's delinquency intervention. Characteristics of children and the criminal justice system and the welfare, education, health and social security systems, relationships. Children, youth, women, and adult offenders, preventive and rehabilitative models of social work.

Lesson Name: Strategic Plan And Project Development in Social Work Institution

Lesson Content: Social service organizations strategic planning process: situation analysis, mission, vision, principles and values, strategic goals and objectives, activities and projects, monitoring, evaluation and performance measurement, project management and planning of social service organizations.

Lesson Name: Community Development and Social Services

Lesson Content: Community development, and urban development in Kinsale basic definitions, approaches and models of development, development economics and conceptual dimensions of social development in terms of social policy, social work point of view of social development in terms of the holistic approach, holistic approach to economic and social development, social development studies in Turkey structural the development process of development policies, development plans, community development, community development practices in Turkey evaluating the social development approach in terms of social services; Relation models, plans, programs, and projects creation, social development programs and projects for the implementation of the theory of social economic life, the role of government, economic models aimed at the social welfare state.

Lesson Name: Social Work And Civil Society Organization
Lesson Content: The concept of civil society organizations and volunteering. The importance of civil society organizations in the democratic life and in terms of social development. Civil Society Organization organizations, social services function. Civil Society Organization, the organization, functioning and changing roles and skills of social workers.